GILLET'S DEFI TO BELL

He Says the Democratic Candidate Is Under the Iron Control of Bosses Himself.

SENSATION SPRUNG AT MODESTO MEETING

Charge is Made that Bell Was Ordered by Tveitmo and McCarthy to Cease Attacking Ruef and He Obeyed.

(Special to the Republican.)
MODESTO, Cal., Oct. 26.—James N. Gillett, Republican candidate for governor, tonight flew the gage of battle early at the feet of his Democratic opponent,
charging in words that were direct and convincing that while Bell was going about the state crying out against "fusion," he is himself controlled by bosses, and bosses that in San Francisco at the present day stand shoulder to shoulder with Abe Ruef in the latter's attempts to escape a state prison cell.

Before the largest political meeting held in Modesto in the present campaign, one that overtaxed the capacity of Army Hall and compelled the use of a second hall and the seating
of two speeches by the candidate, Gillett made the following statement:

"Mr. Bell says that he is not controlled by any bosses in this campaign and that there are no influences affecting him. When he first received his nomination he started at once to abuse Ferrin, Hearst, Schmitz and Ruef,
then through the efforts of P. H. McCarty,
president of the Building Trades Council of San Francisco, and of Mr. Parry and Mr. Tveitmo, he succeeded in getting himself endorsed, by a very narrow margin, by the Union Labor party.

Immediately thereafter, and while he was in this city of Modesto, he received a telegram purporting to be sent by Tveitmo and Parry, directing Ruef not to consider him any further.
Ruef had strictly followed those instructions from that day to the present time.

"This, even were there no other proof clearly shows that he is being influenced by McCarty, Tveitmo and Parry,
who are out campaigning for Mr.
Bell and doing their best to accomplish his election. These men are the friends and co-workers of Mr. Ruef.
Last night, the Building Trades Council, of which Mr. McCarty is president, at a meeting at which he was present, approved the act of Mr. Gallagher, acting mayor of San Francisco, in removing Mr. Anglouin from the office of public attorney. It is fair to conclude that Mr. Bell, being convinced that he undoubtedly is, with these gentlemen, in full accord with them in what they have done and in what they are doing."

"Under such circumstances, it seems to me Mr. Bell is hardly in a position to charge any other candidate in this campaign with wearing a collar, or of being under the influence of any person or corporation, and it does seem fitting to me that the people of this state should at this time consider his protests calm and fair and as they record we the know facts."

Gillett was accorded an magnificent greeting here tonight, the meeting which was presided over by Congressman James C. Neisham, and which was also addressed by Robert T. Davlin, being one of the best in the history
of this city.

Gillett left here at 12:15 tonight and will reach Fresno at 3:15 a. m. He will rest until 8 o'clock and go on to Laford, returning to Fresno for the evening meeting there.

(By Associated Press)
MODESTO, Oct. 26.—A monster
demonstration was given, James N. Gillett, Republican nominee for governor, on the occasion of his visit to this city
this evening.

The Gillett party, comprising Gillett,
Congressman J. C. Neisham, Judge
Burnett, Judge N. P. Chipman and Robert
P. Devlin, arrived on the afternoon train and were greeted by the music of bands and the booming of cannon. All afternoon Modesto was thronged with Republicans from all over the country
all anxious to meet the Republican standard bearer.

At night Army Hall, the largest auditorium in the city, was crowded to overflowing an hour prior to the opening of the meeting. Outside the doors glared with red fire and bands played. Five hundred people formed an overflow meeting on the outside of the hall.

EDUCATION BILL IN HOUSE OF LORDS

Debate Indicates a Spirit of Compromise on the Contentious Measure.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—A strong tone of contention and opposition characterized the debate in the house of lords yesterday on the education bill. Lord Goschen, the Archishop of Canterbury and other speakers of prominent position, while supporting the measure, were in complete opposition to the contents of the bill.

The present temper of the lords seems
to leave an opening for a compromise.
This spirit is reflected in the speech of Sir George Grey, who moved a motion that the bill be referred to a committee to be appointed at once to the court of Appeal at Albany.

"I do not expect to hear from him
until the last of November," she said.
"If he does not come, I will not be disappointed.
If he does not hear from him, then if he has not yet reached the pole I expect that he is in his winter quarters at Cape Horn."

"On the last trip Mr. Peary was forced to turn back when within 250 miles of his goal, owing to the lack of provisions.
The present movement, which will take place in midwinter further north than the action."

Honey and Searcher.

After the roll of the jurors had been called, Assistant District Attorney Honey arose and said: "An officer of the district attorney, and Judge Gra-

rendy disqualified by reason of the argument it has been permitted to hear,
I would like to suggest to the court
that if these remarks are permitted to continue the disqualification may occur. It may become my duty as attorney general to offer my assistance
in the conduct of such criminal proceedings as may come before this body. In view of the gravity of the situation, I believe the question now pending should be resolved without the jury present."

Jury Dismissed.

Judge Graham thereupon made the order dismissing the jury until next Monday morning, and Attorney General Webb continued his address,
several times referring to the possibility of his assisting the functions of public prosecutor.

Ado, who announced himself as attorney for Ruef, proposed that the question of the district attorneyship be discussed for submission to the Supreme court by himself, Attorney General Webb and Honey.

Honey Spoke Out.

Honey replied as follows: "My experience as a prosecutor has been bad, nevertheless, I have made it an inviolable rule never to confer with persons accused of crimes, or their attorneys. The attorney general of this state has seen fit to criticize me for my action in demanding that the jury be examined as to its qualifications. The people have a right to challenge the selection of such a body and I am here as the representative of the people. We know what we shall put into this jury in the first hour of its meeting. They why shall we wait until after the horse is stolen to lock the stable door?"

Shall Thieves Escape?

"The first rule of this grand jury is accuracy, and shall we without investigation, be compelled to disclose the evidence we have been at such pains to gather, to those whose purposes it is to defeat those very ends? Shall we wait for the real witnesses to be killed or burned out of the country? After the miserable fiasco of last evening, what need can be more immediate. I intend to prove that the law is stronger and higher and mightier than any man or set of men in San Francisco."

Campbell Assembled.

During all these proceedings, and for an hour
earlier, a crowd of about 3000 people were assembled. Before court opened the crowd had packed the court room and corridors and a big squad of police was summoned to eject them. The police did not use their most gentle methods in performing this task, and several prominent citizens were roughly thrown out into the street, in damaged condition. Later certain people were admitted to the court room until it was filled, and it was then noticeable that a large percentage of the gathering
inside consisted of policemen in plain clothes.

Cheer Langdon; Hoot Ruef.

A throng of 2000 citizens remained on the streets outside patiently, and in an orderly manner, awaiting the result of the hearing within. When Langdon and Honey emerged they were heartily cheered.
A few minutes later, Ruef appeared, and was hooted and hissed. As he was making his way to his automobile, a man who had been ejected from the court room attempted to strike the political leader, but the police seized him.

Ruef Has Bodyguard.

Ruef was attended in court and afterward by Detective Sergeants Steve Brunner and Tim Riordan, detained by Chief of Police Dinau this morning
from the court room.

Ruef Had Honey Searched.

When the desired juror had been accepted, Honey arose and made objection to the actions of a deputy sheriff who had several times attempted to search him. Ruef said that the deputy was acting under his instructions, it being Ruef's belief that Honey was armed. The court warned the deputy to cease annoying Honey.

Judge Graham Diplomatic.

Then came the question of recognition. Ruef attempted to address the judge "as an officer of the court" but Honey objected to Ruef assuming such right.

The silence of the court room intensified, for here it was expected that the fate of Honey or Ruef was to be decided, but Judge Graham declined to pass upon the issue, saying that he would not, at that time, settle the dispute, nor recognize anyone as an officer of the court. He refused to hear any further argument on the subject.

Honey's Bold Statement.

Ruef, however, succeeded in obtaining permission to speak as an attorney at the bar, and declared that he wished to proceed with an examination
into the qualifications of certain grand jury men.
Honey interrupted, saying that the first thing he intended to present to the grand jury was evidence supporting charges of felony and misdemeanor against Ruef. At this juncture another interruption came from U. S. Webb, attorney general for the state, who declared that the court should not permit such statements to be made before the grand jury, which was present, as it might disqualify
them, and he averred that there was a possibility that they had already been disqualified.

Webb Will Take Charge.

Webb then asserted that he intended to assume charge of the matters now before the court. Judge Graham ordered the jury dismissed until Monday morning, and Honey strongly protested against the form the task of rebuilding this city."

Gallagher's Statement.

Acting Mayor Gallagher said tonight:

"I am satisfied that the attacks against the municipal administration have their origin in the long continued attempts on behalf of the Citizens' Alliance to disrupt the labor union organizations of the city. An administration that is friendly to organized labor is an insuperable obstacle in the way of such purpose."

The enormous amount of labor of all kinds that will have to be performed in the city during the next few years, has undoubtedly prompted the organizers of the Citizens' Alliance to renew their assaults upon officials elected by the Union Labor party, in the hope that they may thereby themselves secure control of the municipal administration and then work out their own will in the matter of the conditions upon which labor shall perform the task of rebuilding this city."

Premature Rush Made.

Early this morning a party of five prospectors made a bold dash into the reservation, but they had gone but a few miles before they were overtaken and summarily ejected. They were informed that they would not be allowed to locate in the reservation and were ordered to leave the country under threat of arrest. Other prospectors, who today had taken places too near the lines, were ordered to keep
at a proper distance.

TUBERCULOSIS NOT ALWAYS INCURABLE

Medical Authority Says Theory of Hereditability Has Caused Much Harm.

SYLVACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Dr. R.
P. Ravenel, assistant director of the Henry Phillips institute for the study of tuberculosis at Philadelphia made some interesting statements yesterday
at an address on "Hereditary predisposition to infection and immunity in tuberculosis."

Dr. Ravenel said it was reasonable to expect that in the near future persons would be vaccinated to make them immune from tuberculosis. He said many but not all of the prospectors who had been ejected from the reservation are from California, although Goldfield, Tonopah and other Nevada mining towns have also here from nearly all the largest eastern cities. Mining syndicates have been instructed to secure as many claims
as possible.

High Prices Prevail.

Accommodations of all kinds are at a high premium. While no hardship has been experienced as yet, it is believed much suffering may result unless more provisions are rushed in. The camp at Yerington was swelled by about 300 additional people today and several thousand are expected tomorrow.
Conveyances of all kinds have been chartered and a high price has been paid for a single horse. The peacock kind of animal brings a large sum.
The lines are being guarded by mounted police.

PARKHURST "SHOWS"
NEW YORK POLICE

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Details of some forms of the wild life to be submitted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in connection with the exhibition of the Circus at Madison Square Garden on Wednesday.
The evidence consists largely of reports
of agents of the society who investigated complaints of cruelty to animals and neglect of them. Most of the reports are in the form of affidavits which are then turned over to Peony Police Commissioner Mathew.

Peony Police officials, in order to protect the animals, will be on duty
during the show to charge that they were treated kindly. The society has made a special effort to insure that the circus will be conducted in accordance with the laws of the state.

The author of the article will be present on the last day of the exhibition, Oct. 28, to observe the treatment of the animals.

MARRIED FOUR MEN
AND MEANT NO HARM

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—In the police station where the wife was Mrs.
Augusta Brumley, who had been marrying four men, appeared before Magistrate Steinmetz charged with bigamy and assault. In answer to the charge of bigamy, after waiting examination of her four husbands, three were in court. She did not know what was doing while all the others were married and I have nothing to do with them, she said.

"I do not expect to hear from him
until the last of November," she said.
"If he does not come, I will not be disappointed.

DAILY GRIND

Chinks Are Raided in Lee Toy's Place.

Resort Had Sentry Posted, But He Was Too Much Interested to Guard.

Surprised at a quiet little game of paitan which engrossed the attention of even the trusted sentinel posted on the lookout end of the place, three Chinamen were arrested yesterday afternoon and charged with gambling in violation of the city ordinances. They were arraigned before Judge Briggs and fined $10 each. The trial and payment of the fines, together with the raid, all occurred within half an hour. The accused men were called Lee Luck, Ah Chow and Ah Chong. The raid took place at Lee Toy's place on China alley, and the arresting officers were Policemen Goehring and Eno.

The two officers got wind, somehow, that a game was in progress and made their way quietly to the entrance where a dopy Chink stood with his back turned, watching movements inside with drowsy interest. The sentry turned when the policemen pushed their way inside and was promptly grabbed by the throat to insure silence at the critical moment. Inside were twenty-seven Chinamen, all of whom were surrounding the gambling table. They made a dash for the door, but the officers secured the chinks. Some of the gamblers dropped through trap doors. The three captured men admitted their guilt and inquired what it was legally worth in the way of a fine. They produced the money willingly enough and hurried back to Chinatown.

The sentry turned when the policemen pushed their way inside and was promptly grabbed by the throat to insure silence at the critical moment. Inside were twenty-seven Chinamen, all of whom were surrounding the gambling table. They made a dash for the door, but the officers secured the chinks. Some of the gamblers dropped through trap doors. The three captured men admitted their guilt and inquired what it was legally worth in the way of a fine. They produced the money willingly enough and hurried back to Chinatown.

The two officers got wind, somehow, that a game was in progress and made their way quietly to the entrance where a dopy Chink stood with his back turned, watching movements inside with drowsy interest. ## NEWS NOTES OF VISALIA

Lost Mine Rediscovered Proves Valuable.

Bell to Speak in Visalia Friday Night, November 2nd—Overall Has Returned.

VISALIA, Oct. 26.—Harry Marcus of San Francisco came here to secure the services of J. Sub Johnson, a jeweler, to make up inspection of a mine recently located by him in Madera county. Mr. Marcus says that the mine is very rich in gold quartz, and those who have seen it one say that it will go $100 to the ton and over. A small piece taken by himself from the mine he sold a dealer for $1.10.

The claim was discovered and located by Mr. Marcus while a member of a surveying party for the Yosemite railroad two years ago. It is an old mine which has probably not been worked for thirty or forty years. There was about 300 feet in length. Mr. Marcus has filed two claims on the property. The mine is located on the Merced river forty miles from the Yosemite valley.

White, known as "Sheep White," charging him with being an incorrigible, was examined this afternoon before Judge Wallace in the Superior court and dismissed from custody, it being shown that he was not vicious as stated in the complaint and was not altogether a very bad boy. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Howard, with whom the lad has been living, stated that while the known of the filing of the complaint that they did not believe it was the best thing to do and that they could control him. ELLEFORD STOCK COMPANY

Will Begin a Week's Engagement
at the Barton Monday.

The Elleford Oakland Stock company, which has during the last six months packed the Mad Doghouse theater in Oakland and completely shattered all box office records in that city, will in order to permit of the appearance of several Eastern companies, make a three-weeks' tour which will be divided equally between Sacramento, Stockton and Fresno. This splendid dramatic organization has not only received the unqualified approval of the Oakland press, but the big San Francisco dailies have departed from their usual custom of only reviewing companies that appear in their city, and spoken in high praise of this company.

This organization of sterling artists will open at the Barton opera house in this city next Monday night, October 29th, with a list of high royalty plays, the equal of which has never been produced here at the low prices that Manager Elleford charges. The repertoire of the big Eastern successes, which will be played here, is the same that this company used in Oakland. Mr. Elleford guarantees that he will produce the same costly costumes, the same scenic and electrical effects and novelties and the same artists that he had in his long Oakland engagement. The plays are: "Sherlock Holmes," "The Sign of the Four," "That Girl From Texas," "Saved From Shame," "The Biggest Hero," "The Girl Slave," and "Josh Whitehead," companion play to "The Old Homestead."

Norval Mac Gregor, one of the best delineators of romantic roles, is the leading man and Rupert Dunn, a powerful and talented actor, plays the heavy role; James Corrigan, the best character actor in the West; William R. Abram, a clever light comedian; Wallace Howe, a quaint and diverting young comedian; Albert Eustice, an amiable juvenile performer; James Williams, a exceedingly handsome and gifted leading woman; Estelle Warfield, a vivacious and capable comedienne; Georgia Woodthrone, a splendid character woman; and Pauline Maithland, who distinguished herself in eccentric comedy parts are included in roster of this company, which also contains a number of artists of lesser note, who are thoroughly competent to do full justice to the minor roles.

The same popular prices of 10, 20 and 30 cents that Manager Elleford always adheres to with his road company will prevail during this limited engagement of the Oakland company. Seats are now on sale.

BLUE RIBBONS HAVE DISBANDED

The Fresno Blue Ribbon baseball team has disbanded for the season with a total of sixteen victories to its credit out of twenty games played. This season, which gives the local aggregation the title to the amateur championship of the San Joaquin valley. Under the management of Walter Holland the local baseball players have developed into a good team that can show many lessons how to play the game.

Tomorrow a team composed largely of players from the Blue Ribbons together with other players, will cross over with the Visalia team. The Blue Ribbons have twice defeated the Visalia aggregation and it remains to be seen what the new team can do with the southerners.

BUNKO OUTFIT UNDER CULVERT

Valise Belonging to Harris and Green Discovered.

The Confidence Men Told Sheriff Buckner They Will Plead Guilty.

HANFORD, Oct. 26.—The missing valise which Harris and Green, the bunko men, informed Sheriff Buckner had been hidden by them under a culvert leading to the highway from Stanford, was brought to the sheriff's office today by the finder, John Simmerly, it having been discovered by him under a small bridge about four and a half miles northeast of Hanford.

When the valise was opened it was found to contain an old vest, a paper of pins, a quantity of blank paper cut to the size of a bank note, several strips of paper such as are used by banks to fasten rolls of currency, stamped with amounts aggregating $22,000.

Harris and Green have announced to Sheriff Buckner that they are willing to plead guilty. As they are both old men and as their victim, Dutra, beat a card game, they hope to secure light sentence. Green who is 72 years old, has spent twenty-five years of his life in prison and this will probably be his last trip.

Harrison Sain, aged 88 years, died at his home in this city last evening. The deceased was a pioneer of this part of the country, having come here from Plumas county twenty-one years ago.

He leaves three sons—G. W. Sain of Hanford, L. M. Sain of Coulterville and H. J. Sain of Oregon. The funeral will be held at the Advent church of Hanford tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Bagby officiating.

THE FRESNO MORNING REPUBLICAN

PUBLISHED BY
Fresno Republican Publishing Co.

CHESTER H. HOWELL Editor and Manager

GILLET.

Fresno greets today James N. Gillett, Republican candidate for governor of California. It will be a hearty welcome, expressive of genuine friendship and appreciation of the man. Fresno has not forgotten that Senator Gillett was one of the faithful workers in the Bard fight, so near to the hearts of Fresno. Fresno will not forget that Congressman Gillett, in congress, has co-operated faithfully with our own Representative in all matters of interest to us. Fresno will not forget that it is a Republican county, and that, other things being equal, the dominant party should furnish the governor. And when Fresno sees and hears Mr. Gillett, it will know that other things are much more than equal. Both the other candidates have been in Fresno, both bright and vigorous young men of character, ability and standing. Now the Republican candidate will show himself to be a man of equal character, greater ability, and of far, wider experience, sounder temperament, sober judgment, more forceful personality, and more of all the other qualifications needful in a governor, in this crisis in the history of the state. Fresno voted for Gillett's nomination; Fresno will turn out enthusiastically to hear Gillett, and Fresno will vote for the election of Gillett.

BOSS BOOSTS BOSS.

One of the most discouraging features of the whole San Francisco mess is the action of the San Francisco Building Trades' Council in endorsing the removal of Langdon and Heney and the appointment of Ruef. This Building Trades' Council represents the men who must rebuild San Francisco. The capitalists of San Francisco may imagine they are its benefactors, but their part is only incidental. The real builders of the new San Francisco are the men whose hands will rebuild it. And these men, or their representatives have formally placed themselves on the side of bad citizenship. It is one of the worst outcomes of the spirit of class government. When citizens care more for class government than for good government; when they prefer the triumph of a class to the responsibilities of citizenship, they are undermining the foundations of their own liberties. Class government is bad from every point of view, but one of its worst aspects is its tendency to foment this spirit.

Of course this action of the Building Trades' Council does not represent the actual sentiment of the builders of San Francisco. While demagogues have exalted class spirit among these workers beyond all reason, they have not raised it, in their minds, above their native honesty and good citizenship. But labor politics in San Francisco has had the same evils in the unions that have been manifested in the city government. There are city bosses and union bosses, and one is not much better than the other. Ruef bosses the city government and McCarthy bosses the unions. And the two stand together for mutual protection and benefit. The resolution in question purports to speak the voice of labor against the voice of citizenship. Actually it only speaks the voice of labor bosses in favor of political bosses. The people of San Francisco are repudiating the political boss. The workers in the building trades should repudiate the labor boss.

FIRST SKIRMISH.

Langdon and Heney seem to have won at least a negative victory in the first day's try-out in San Francisco. They have countered Ruef's coup and prevented his invasion of the district attorney's office and destruction of evidence incriminating himself. But in the present temper of the people of San Francisco, negative victory is not enough. The situation is very inflammable, and a spark, flying just right, would set it off. The strain can not be endured long without some positive action, and the only satisfactory action will be the prompt presentation to the grand jury of the evidence of corruption, by the man who gathered it. If there is no prompt legal way of accomplishing this result, the risk is serious that illegal methods will be resorted to. And this, in the present condition of San Francisco, would be extremely dangerous. Bad citizenism in San Francisco is organized, and is in control of the city government. In addition, there is a numerous body of personally good men, whom class feeling has made into bad citizens. If there is any attempt to go beyond legal methods in San Francisco, there will be two parties to the usurpation, both strong, organized and determined. That is not vigilante committee terrorism, but war, with victory by no means certain on the side of right. All this means that peace and the forms of law must be preserved at all hazards, even against a provocation which well justifies revolution. And this can only be accomplished by showing that prompt results are attainable within the forms of law. To this end every effort must be bent, we will hope with success.

The attempt to backfire with charges against Heney is of course ridiculous. The charges, if true, would be nothing to the point. And we may be sure the Oregon grifters would have pressed them, if they were true. If we knew nothing about Heney but that President Roosevelt trusts him, and that he "made good" in Oregon when everybody else had failed, that would be enough. Obstruction of a responsible investigation, by that sort of a man, is obstruction of justice. The pretense of Ruef that he is going to have the prosecution continue, under some other disinterested prosecutor, is as shallow as Mayor Gallagher's bluff that the whole crusade is a Citizens' Alliance attack on the labor unions. The Citizens' Alliance in all its career, never had the brains nor the courage to make an attack like this. Any pretense that an attack on grafting is an attack on unions, is probably the worst insult that could be uttered against the unions.

It is just possible that there is a grain of truth in Ruef's statement that he is actuated by a desire to bring these charges to a focus at once. Of the truth of the charges there is no moral doubt whatever, but it is not impossible that one more confession may be needed to complete the legal proof, and that the sudden publicity, after all these months of secret investigation, may be an attempt to scare this last needed confession out of some wavering supervisor. In that case, Ruef's effort will be to focus the issue before this confession is obtained.

This crisis in San Francisco is a matter of state-wide importance. It is the last stand at bay of the men who have corrupted the government and polluted the politics of the whole state. If Ruef could win what might be called an immoral victory, his grip on the throat of California would be firmer than ever. That, however, is scarcely conceivable. The moral victory is already won, and Ruef, Schmidt, Gillingsworth and all their gang are now "dead ones" forever. Their highest hope is to keep out of jail. And if, instead, they are landed where they belong, one decisive victory for the liberties of California will have been won.

METCALF TO INVESTIGATE

Will Visit San Francisco for President.

Object of His Mission Is to Find Out Facts About Japanese.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—President Roosevelt tonight directed Victor H. Metcalf, secretary of the department of commerce and labor, to proceed to San Francisco and make a thorough and complete inquiry into the situation affecting the exclusion of Japanese children from the schools provided for white children, and the determination to place Japanese children in separate schools. The president is anxious to obtain at first hand, from a cabinet officer, who is acquainted with local conditions in San Francisco, full information affecting every phase of the subject to the end that whatever action is taken by this government may be after an accurate understanding of the situation.

The president feels that every effort within his power should be exerted to see that all the treaty rights claimed by the Japanese for the people residing in the United States should be respected and protected. The determination to send Secretary Metcalf to San Francisco was one of the requests made by Viscount Aoki, the Japanese ambassador, who, at a conference with Secretary Root yesterday, asked that the Japanese subjects in California be accorded their full rights under the treaty of 1894, including that of the children to attend the public schools of San Francisco. This request was the subject of very long and earnest discussion at the cabinet meeting today, when the conclusion was reached that the best thing to be done was to send Metcalf to California to secure personally all the data which could have any possible bearing on the situation. The despatch of a cabinet officer on such a mission, it was argued, would demonstrate to the Japanese the evident sincerity of the government in dealing with the whole subject and its desire to see that every effort is made to get at the facts.

Every facility will be put at Metcalf's command to make his investigation as thorough as possible, as the president is anxious to have the inquiry conducted with all possible expedition in order to have the results at hand without delay. It is hardly likely that any report from Metcalf will be available before the president leaves on his Panama trip, although Metcalf may send some information by telegraph soon after he arrives at San Francisco. It is hoped by the administration officials that the expressed desire of the administration to secure the treaty rights of the Japanese will tend to allay the anti-American feeling in the country, and am familiar with its official record. That he will make your state an excellent example I have no doubt. He is an able man, a clean man and a thoroughly independent man. He should poll a very large vote.

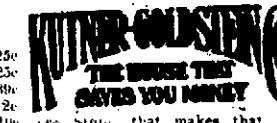

Asked about presidential possibilities, the president said that it was not an issue, and asked to be excused from discussing it.

HOAG SHUT OUT SEATTLE

Raisin Eaters Win Game By Score of 2-0.

Clever Base Running and Opportune Hitting Win Yesterday's Contest.

Young Ruth Hoag did himself proud yesterday afternoon. He shut out the Seattle bunch, allowing but three scattered hits and most of the time had the veteran sticklers that travel with Russ Hall fuming the air where the ball wasn't. The Raisin Eaters were also there with the bat at the proper time and by fast base running and pinch hitting got two men across the dish, winning the game.

Virgil Garvin pitched a good game, but Fresno's willow artists were too much for him and, although they got but five hits, those hits counted.

Fresno made his first run in the second inning without making a single safe hit. This is how it happened. Trunk struck out and Bert Delmas was issued a free pass to first. Bert was on his feet and stole second and then third while Happy was waiting for something good to come over. Then Happy got what he wanted and laid the ball in the very middle of the diamond. Delmas was across the rubber before Garvin could get his hands on the ball and hardly succeeded in getting Hogan at the initial sack.

The eighth was a funny inning. Hoag started with a scratch hit to Kane and was sacrificed to second by Cartwright. Casey went out on a grounder to Kane and Doyle hit safe to first, scoring Hogan. Then Charlie took off great a lead while Garvin had the ball and Garvin threw to Streiff. Charlie started for the second sack, and it looked as though he would get caught, Streiff threw the ball to Kane and Charlie started back to the first sack. Charlie started back to throw the ball to first, but there was no one there and he had to chase Doyle. Charlie did for the bag and Kane made a plunge after him, but went clear over his prostrate form and rolled in the dirt. Doyle was caught later at second.

Only once in the game did Seattle have a chance to score and then Ruth's steady work and fast fielding by the Raisin Eaters shut them out. That was in the seventh inning. VanBuren walked and Blankenship bunted to Cartwright. Charlie got VanBuren at second and Blankenship was safe at first. Householder got a clean hit to left and Blankenship went second.

Quincy, Sprains and Swellings Cured.

"In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. A. Cousins, Utterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a balsam and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by all druggists.

Hoag walked Croll, filling the sacks. Then Streiff hit to Delmas, but Bert was on the alert and threw out Blenkenship at the plate. Mott flew high to Doyle and Sentle retired with three men on bases.

Benefit Game Today.

Today's game will be played for the benefit of the building fund of the Parlor Lecture club, and the tickets are in charge of the ladies of that organization. McGregor and Viadero will be on the slab. The last time that Ruth pitched the Raisin Eaters batted him all over the lot, but you never can tell what will happen in baseball. McGregor is the streakiest pitcher that Fresno has and will put up a game fight.

AT LOS ANGELES.—Although the local outfit played San Francisco today, but in number of hits and in their work in the field, they were unable to connect consecutively with the curves of Brown and had by the score of 4 to 2. The visitors were blanketed by Bergeman in all but one inning, when a double, two singles, a sacrifice, a base on a ball and a hit batter netted them four runs. Score:

GOOD WORDS FOR FISHER

"Mike's Work."

Says His Retirement from Baseball Will Be Loss to the Sport.

He believes he will be able to make a fortune in legitimate business pursuits in San Francisco.

Should Fisher make good his desire to retire Happy Hogan, Mike's able lieutenant, will make up the management of the Fresno team.

"Fisher's players will hardly want to lose their leader, for he has been very considerate of their interests, and every man on the team has been more loyal to Mike.

"He has ever been fair with his players and his manner towards them has always been one of kindness.

"He was not tyrannical in any sense and was the easiest of managers to work for.

"If baseball loses Fisher it will lose one of its most jovial and lovable men."

"This is an man on the coast better or more favorably known than the Fresno manager. Every baseball enthusiast knows Mike, and followers of the sport have been time and again convinced with laughter at some of the clever stories Mike has told.

"Mr. Fisher has been very successful as a manager as well as extremely popular. He started his active managerial career with the Sacramento team, where Mike still has a host of friends.

"Later he went to Tacoma to play for that city a coast league pennant winner, and one of the finest clubs that ever played in the West organization.

"This season Fisher was as successful as Fresno as it was possible for any manager to be with the material.

Langdon's Affidavit in Asking for Injunction.

Text of Restraining Order By Judge Seawell Addressed to Ruef.

tained, to destroy what Gallagher has already done. Both of these writs may be obtained from the Superior court, Court of Appeals or the Supreme court. Both the writs would enter into the merits of the case and the decision would be immediate and final.

LANGDON'S PLAIN STATEMENT TO JUDGE SEAWELL

District Attorney Langdon, in his affidavit presented to Judge Seawell, states that he and the seven supervisors, as the plaintiff is informed and believes, and therefore aver, had, prior to the commencement of the formation of the San Francisco Citizens' League in this city and county of San Francisco and had been guilty of crimes against the people of the state of California and the people of this city and county, and had threatened and intimidated, knowing those facts, in order to prevent an investigation of the said felonies and the said crimes and in order to prevent the continuation of the same, to commit the same, and in order to subvert the laws of the state of California and to prevent indictments of themselves for the felonies just referred to, the defendant, Ruef, should be made the district attorney.

The defendant supervisors, by reason of their official positions, are able to exert influence from the police of the city and county of San Francisco and are able to use the power and authority of the said city and county of San Francisco to their illegal purposes; and the said defendants, supervisors and the defendant Ruef, have threatened to, and will, unless restrained by this court, by all means available, to occupy the city and county of San Francisco and others, forcibly carry out their conspiracy and unlawful design, and with force and violence, and if Ruef, as the said supervisor, occupied the office of district attorney of the city and county of San Francisco, and forcibly carried the papers, records and files of the said office and the said files of the said office, and it is the purpose and design of said Ruef, as the plaintiff is informed and believes and therefore avers, immediately upon receiving the injunction, to cause the said office of district attorney of the city and county of San Francisco, to use the name for his personal advantage and gain, and for the advantage of his friends and enemies, and to destroy, obliterate and secrete any evidence whatsoever that may be found by him, or by them, relative to the said felonies.

TEXT OF ORDER RESTRANDING RUEF FROM INTERFERENCE

The injunction served upon Ruef reads as follows:

"Appearing herein that the defendants are interfering with the plaintiff in the discharge of his duties as district attorney of the city and county of San Francisco, and that the defendant, Ruef, attempted to intrude into the office of district attorney and that the defendants are about to take possession of the place where said office is conducted, and of the papers, records and files thereof, all without right on the part of said defendants, or any of them, it is hereby ordered that the said defendants be and appear before this court on Friday, the second day of November, 1906, that and there to show cause if any they have, why an injunction should not issue out of this court pending this litigation, restraining them, their agents and all those acting in aid of them, from interfering in any manner whatsoever with the plaintiff in the discharge of his duties as district attorney, and from on behalf of the defendant Ruef, or otherwise, taking possession of the place where the said plaintiff has transacted the business of the office of district attorney, or of property, papers, records and files of said office, and restraining and enjoining said defendants, and agents, from asserting or claiming the defendant Ruef to be district attorney of the city and county of San Francisco, and restraining and enjoining the defendant Ruef from acting as district attorney or taking possession of the books, papers, records and files of the said office of district attorney; and generally restraining the defendants, and each of them, from any act whatsoever hindering, impeding, delaying or obstructing the plaintiff in the discharge of his duties or in acting as district attorney of the city and county of San Francisco, or which may tend to impede, obstruct, hinder or delay the plaintiff as district attorney of the city and county of San Francisco or in the performance of the duties of

Ambassador Thompson denied any connection with the case and says the charges against him are absurd.

Hunt was the attorney for the bank, and it is charged that he favored creditors and fraudulently and falsely stated the amount of the debts in order to realize upon them after the institution was in the receiver's hands. Associated with him in the transactions were J. O. Black, C. Stump, a member of the board of directors, and Antonino Rincon, confidential adviser of Hunt.

J. W. Wilson of the firm of Warner, Johnson and Wilson, attorney for the liquidating committee, tonight made charges against the United States ambassador here. He said to a representative of the Associated Press: "We've got independent evidence that Ambassador Thompson has acted improperly in the case. He went to President Diaz in an effort to have the proceedings discontinued. Hunt, and I, and another went to Judge Ortega before whom the charge was pending, in an endeavor to influence that jurist. We have drawn up a statement entreating them to change their minds, and we did so. I believe we have sufficient proof to warrant the recall of the ambassador."

Ambassador Thompson received the report of the Associated Press of his home here tonight. He contented himself with a simple denial of the charges.

"I never in my life had any connection with the president," he said. "nor did I ever improperly try to influence a court in this case. Let them file their charges. They will do a serious matter when they do."

The authorities at Washington know of every move I make here, and know that I would not do wrong."

MOTHER AND CHILD THROWN FROM RUNAWAY BIG

As J. Smith, wife and child of Centerville, were driving home yesterday afternoon their team took flight at a Santa Fe train at the Ventura street crossing and ran away. In the plunge the horses broke the pole and Mrs. Smith and 5-year-old child were thrown from the surrey. The child received six severe scalp wounds. The horses ran on, Mr. Smith remaining in the rig and struggling to bring the animals to a halt. They were stopped at the county hospital. Drs. HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 26.—The thirty-third annual convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union opened here today. Mrs. Lillian N. M. Stevens of Portland, Me., president and more than 450 delegates from all parts of the United States were present and some from Austria, Japan, Egypt, Greece and other countries.

EDWARD WINSLOW, 42 years old, city editor for the Nelson Morris Park, testified that Ruef was a disreputable boss who has ever tyrannized over an American city. The nomination of Gillett was in no way accomplished by Ruef and his gang, said Mr. Williams, but the bosses climbed on Gillett's band wagon after his nomination was an assured fact.

Mr. Williams replied to the argument of George Cartwright about the evils of money panics and said that panics are caused by unwise economic administration of the religious press.

Mr. Barbour, in his speech to the San Francisco situation and characterized Ruef as the most disgraceful boss that has ever tyrannized over an American city. ## SOCIAL AND CLUB NEWS

Miss Adeline Thornton entertained yesterday at a very delightful luncheon at her home three miles south of Kearney park. It was an ideal October day for a drive into the country which was not the least of the attractions of the occasion. Miss Zee Eden took a party of five with her in her touring car which gave her friends many pleasant associations throughout the country and which was always at the disposal of visitors many of whom have enjoyed the kind hospitality of the general young chafefessure. The luncheon table was in decorations of pink with a center piece of beautiful La France roses and pink shaded candles lighting the table. Places were marked with cards bearing a dainty design of autumn leaves and the names of the following guests: Miss Zee Eden, Miss Kate Parsons, Miss Anna Miller, Miss Alice Hopkins, Miss Grace Graham, of San Francisco, Miss Florence Jacobs of Shoreview, Louisiana, Miss Eva Buva, Miss Edna Cooper, Miss Annie Maxx, Miss Elsie Smith.

After lunch the guests enjoyed a delightful chat on the broad veranda, while some of the more industrious ones sewed.

The Friday afternoon Card club met yesterday with Mrs. E. J. Manheim for its usual weekly round of "fun." The cup and saucer prize was won by Mrs. George Roeding. For absent members, Mrs. George Monroe and Miss Mildred Rorick substituted. The club will be entertained next week by Mrs. Lewis H. Smith.

Mrs. H. A. Schilling, who has been the guest for several weeks of Mr. H. Harris, was charmingly complimented yesterday by an informal gathering of a few congenial friends at the home of Mrs. Lee Gamblefinger. The fancy work was furnished, employment for busy fingers, while a cozy social chat was enjoyed over the tea cups later. Mrs. Schilling leaves this morning for Berkeley.

Miss Alice Horrin, daughter of W. F. Herrin of San Francisco, will arrive this afternoon on a visit of several weeks to her friend, Miss Adeline Thornton.

Mrs. J. A. Christy of Parson's is in town visiting Mrs. E. Curtis of No. 670 Nethers Avenue. Mrs. Christy will remain several weeks so that her many friends in Fresno will have an opportunity of meeting her.

Mrs. Henry Gamblefinger has as her guest for a week or two, her aunt, Mrs. Hudson of San Francisco.

The Friday Study club met yesterday with Mrs. J. A. Burns on South Street for an interesting day of reading and discussing the Merchant of Venice with Mrs. Miller. Mrs. Gilman read a most interesting and entertaining paper on "Venice," while Mrs. E. B. Waterman added to the enjoyment of the afternoon with a reading from Longfellow's "Venice." Mrs. B. A. Fassett will be the club's hostess next week.

The Madison Club met yesterday for its customary all-day session with Mrs. Louise Brett at her home near Kearney Avenue. The guests were seated at one long table extending through the dining room and living room. Besides the decorations of lovely yellow marigolds, the attractiveness of the table was enhanced by the quantities of beautiful china exquisitely decorated by the skillful hostess, which evoked many admiring comments from the guests. The club always considers it a most fortunate favor to be the guests of Mrs. Brett.

FRESNO MAY HAVE COLLEGE

Fresno Salvationists Have Reinforcements from City and Have Big Campaign

If Satan imagines for one minute that he can sit on his haunches in Fresno and have things his own way, he is sorely disappointed. He is continually being plagued by a strong, unstrategic and so tactful by the soldiers who war against sin, that nothing is left for him to do but to beat an ungrateful retreat and run away and the present sedition against his forces leaves the field.

The Salvation Army here has ever been an active fighting force, even though it has been led by Mr. Captain Holt, who resembles gentle vivianites, but who is really among the fiercest warriors in the ranks. Their slogan against the present world and future was the subject of the witches' discourse, and all the tricks known to the "spooky" season were tried. The affair was most successful in every way and the ladies are to be congratulated upon having entertained well.

PRICES CURRENT

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Influenced by small receipts in the Northwest, the wheat market opened firmly steady, but weakness developed within the first few minutes on active selling by several prominent commission houses.

During the remainder of the session, sentiment was inclined to bear side, although a fairly steady feeling prevailed at the close. The market was chiefly affected by the news from Argentina. Whether there was said to be any favorable for the growing crop and another weakening factor was a report of the spring wheat made by a St. Louis trade journal. This claimed that the crop is progressing well, and is in a favorable condition. The market closed fairly steadily. December opened unchanged at 72 1/2¢, sold off at 72 1/2¢ and closed at 72 1/2¢.

The attention of traders was attracted to the corn market late in the day because in a sharp advance in the price of the December delivery, following a report covering by shorts. The market closed strong, 7 1/2¢ higher at 43 1/2¢.

Trading in the oats pit was quiet and the tone of the market was steady. December closed unchanged at 33 1/2¢.

Provisions were fairly steady because of a slight advance in the price of live hogs. At the close January pork and lard were up 7 1/2¢ and ribs were 36 7/8¢ higher.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Wheat steady; December $1.20 1/2¢; May $1.15; cash $1.25.

Bacon earlier; December $1.13 1/2¢; cash $1.21 1/2¢.

Corn, quiet; large yellow $1.35¢; small 74 1/2¢.

CHILDREN HAVE CLOSE ESCAPE IN LOSS OF HOME

Fire on Inyo Street is Caused By Children Playing With Matches.

The woods are full of "so-called" remedies for baldness.

You may call anything in creation a remedy, but to use them is like locking the stable after the horse is stolen. Baldness and dandruff are caused by a germ—if you don't kill the germ the germ will kill the hair.

Scientists have labored with the problem of a preventive for baldness for many years.

Hericide is the product of a modern idea and will cure dandruff and prevent baldness because germs cannot exist when you apply Hericide.

Hericide is a valuable hair dressing and scalp disinfectant as well as a cure for dandruff.

Sold by leading druggists. Send in stamps for sample to The Hericide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SHORT BACK FROM COAST

Found Sentiment All Favorable to Gillett.

Denounces Ruef's Action in San Francisco as Most Astounding.

Frank H. Short returned to Fresno yesterday from a coast tour in the interest of the Republican state ticket. He spoke with the Republican standard bearer at Long Beach, Ventura, Santa Barbara and Redwood City. He also spoke in San Luis Obispo and San Clara. Mr. Short states that all the meetings were unusually well attended and gave indications of Republican majorities.

Mr. Short is confident of Mr. Gillett's election. "The most conservative estimates," he said, "give Gillett a majority south of the Tehachapi of between 20,000 and 30,000. The vote down there has practically doubled in the last four years. The sentiment throughout the state seems altogether favorable to Gillett."

Asked about the San Francisco situation, Mr. Short said:

"The removal of Mr. Langdon under the circumstances is a very extraordinary and wholly unjustifiable proceeding. Coupled with the removal of Mr. H. H. White, the appointment of Mr. Ruef, it becomes one of the most astounding and audacious proceedings that have ever occurred in the history of the city. It will be accepted, I think, by all disinterested persons as a practical admission of guilt, and so understood it becomes the most important question that has confronted San Francisco since the earthquake and fire. I have no doubt it will become not only an issue for San Francisco, but for the entire state."

"For myself, I think all good citizens should unite to overturn and destroy in combination that has apparently become so bold as to have no regard either for decency or public opinion. I am prepared to meet this issue and do all in my power to protect and restore honest and decent government and to assist in bringing about the conviction of any and every person who has violated and defied the law."

FEDERATED TRADES TALK OF SUNDAY CLOSING

Subject Will Form Theme of Special Sermon Tomorrow and Members Will Attend.

The principal topic of discussion before the Council of Federated Trades at their regular weekly meeting last night was Sunday closing and the necessity existing for a day of rest.

Dr. Royl who is present as delegate from the Ministerial union, spoke at length on the subject and concluded by offering to conduct a special service tomorrow, during which he would deliver a sermon bearing upon the subject.

The council will hold an executive meeting on Wednesday night to take up matters of importance, but the subject of the meeting has not been disclosed, and is not known to any save the officers of the body. By some it is thought that the political situation figures prominently while with others it is believed that something closely connected with a local labor question will arise.

The boycott began when a bill had been brought against Japanese restaurants in the California city. Agents have been sent to prevent patrons from entering the restaurants, and many of the diners have been thrown and windows broken, according to the statements of Japanese officials.The boycott has brought to the attention of the Japanese government demonstrations against Japan which are partly due to their nature.When asked today if complaints have reached him from Japanese in any other city, Dr. Fischer said: "Yes, in Fresno, Vicente Gómez told me that all the trouble
there is due to the fact that the Japanese are making their own prices for the American consumers, and who no longer require the protection of the government for their rights."Dr. Fischer said: "I believe that the Japanese are making their own prices anywhere, and will destroy or impair
a single business interest in this country that was making a legitimate profit out of its enterprise, but am not concerned with the Japanese, because they are making their own prices for the American consumers."The president of the Japanese

SHORT SPEAKS AT PARLIER ON IMPORTANT POLICIES

Will Work for a Railroad Bill Embodying All the Important Features of the Interstate Commerce Act, With Local Provisions of Special Application to this State—Will Support Legislation to Protect and Develop the Oil Industry—Agricultural College for Kearney Park.

Frank H. Short, Republican candidate for state senator, made the first speech since his return from his state campaign, at Parlier last night and in the course of his remarks Mr. Short outlined important measures which he will work for in the next session of the legislature.

The meeting was well attended and enthusiastic. The hall was crowded. A. M. Drew made a short address and W. A. Sutherland, who followed, invited all attention almost entirely to the charge of boosism, making a forcible speech. He said Democrats had no more right to cry "boos" at Gillett than they had at Governor Pardee four years ago. At that time when the railroad was not yet built, it took Pardee; this time, when it couldn't get Boos, it accepted Gillett, getting into his hand wages.

Short's Speech.

Mr. Short spoke in part as follows:

"I am glad to have this opportunity of stating certain important matters of legislation which will receive my attention, and which I hope to be able with the assistance of others, to pass."

"Referring to the bequest of the Kearney estate property, to the state university, there is no question but what this bequest will be accepted by the university and will become the property of the state, for the benefit of the university. The difficult question will arise, however, when to refer to the point of deciding as to whether the developments of the State Agricultural college shall be centralized upon the Kearney property or shall be divided between that property and the Yolo county property. If the courses were adopted of dividing the state's activities and maintaining the Agricultural college at such points the expenses would greatly increase, and the educational results diminished. I think it is clear that the interests of the state and the university will be greatly advanced and the expenses reduced by concentrating the agricultural branch of the university on the Kearney estate property. It is a magnificent, productive, self-sustaining property and contains the finest park and grounds already for the reception of the state buildings and the establishment of the Agricultural college that exists in the state. Anyone who imagines, however, that this will be done without effort fails to understand the influences and about Davisville building Sacramento, that will be brought to bear in favor of that locality, and I have no doubt that the united efforts of the San Joaquin valley delegation will be necessary, assisted by others, in order to carry into effect this arrangement. I have already done some work in this direction, however, and have little question that we shall succeed."

Direct Primary Law.

"Concerning the enactment of a direct primary law, there is also a little doubt but what a primary law can be passed, and I expect to introduce one soon for direct primary law that the voters of the party are through voting at the primaries the work will be done and the candidates nominated; also including an expression of the choice of the voters for United States senator, with the understanding that you and I will do the best we can to make up the legislature. It is a matter I think of great vital importance that we not only have such a direct primary law, but that we have such a law that there can be no question of its legality and efficiency. There will be opposition to an efficient primary law, I do not doubt, but I have every confidence that a good direct primary law can be passed."

Anti-Rebate Law.

"There is another matter in connection with which I have not previously spoken that I consider of even more importance to the state than either of the others discussed, and that is to say, that there has hitherto been no legislation or adequate legislation for the control and regulation of railroads within the state. We have some strong constitutional provisions upon that subject and a direction in the constitution that further legislation shall be had. Substantially no such further legislation has been had and I have had occasion heretofore to thoroughly familiarize myself with this subject, and the passage by the last congress of the so-called rates bill or interstate commerce bill indicates I think that the legislature of California will be willing to pass an act carrying into effect in this state all of the beneficial provisions of the act of congress, and perhaps including other useful provisions for the strengthening and improvement of the law. Re-hating should be expressly prohibited and made criminal in this state and all discrimination should be prevented and penalties imposed. The laws need not be such as any railroad honestly conducted will object to, but the law ought to be made efficient for the protection of wrongs and abuses and I hope with knowledge of the subject to get a committee to go to the legislature to see if they can't get the bill passed in this state in the strongest and the best law for the job, but through regulation of railroads that exist in the state, and I propose to move to introduce and work earnestly for the passage of such a law and believe that the situation and circumstances are extremely favorable for success."

The Oil Industry.

"The oil industry of the state is in a deplorable condition and I shall give that subject special attention. There are some features of the rates bill above referred to recently passed by congress by which I hope can be carried into the state law and prove of great benefit to the industry, and I shall stand ready not only to introduce but to support all legislation tending to protect and develop this great industry. I expect to be so busy in the endeavor to pass practical and possible legislation that I shall doubtless have little time to discuss impractical and impossible matters, I consider the next session of the legislature will be the most important which ever convened in California and insofar as it can be done I shall endeavor to give the support and influence of the state to the rebating and re-establishment of San Francisco and her institutions and also to help my legislation to assist something in the re-establishment of honest efficient and decent municipal government in that city."

United States Senator.

"While I am in favor of a tariff on raisins, I will not have an opportunity to express my views upon that question unless some resolution upon the subject comes before the Senate and in that event I will not vote for any resolution to remove the tariff on raisins. We do not need roofs on our houses in Fresno during the dry weather, but I shall not advocate taking them off in anticipation that it may not rain in the winter. Neither shall I vote for or support any man for United States senator who is not in favor of their protective tariff, including a protective tariff on the raisin and other products of this country. The senator elected from this county this fall will vote for United States senator at the session two years from now and the people of this county I think have a vital interest in the election of a United States senator acquainted with and thoroughly in accord with their interests, including the protection of their industries."

The "immunity" in the shape of Fred Warren, redeems the whole show. The "immunity" is a complete and continuous of a first-class minstrel and continuity to do a "Hastus Johnston" stunt. His physiognomy is exactly suited to the part of the "immunity" and several others that might be mentioned, but in the process of putting new falls on the "Maid and the Mummy" those did not seem to be quite enough and were used in the frequenting of the "immunity" had the best of all the way through, while the "immunity" had an occasional fall in a sting that was not especially clever or nimble.

When one remembers that this is the third year of the show's continuance, the "immunity" continues to attract a crowd around it. It takes a first-class minstrel comedy to stand the strain of these long, cold winters. "Vivian" Smith and several others that might be mentioned, but in the process of putting new falls on the "Maid and the Mummy" those did not seem to be quite enough and were used in the frequenting of

There is no plot in the play—anyway, nobody butters with plots when they were up to date in those days for plots in musical comedy. They do not imitate them. The fun hinges about the roundabout of an impudent young man who goes about the country and makes his bolts overtaking him, makes his trusted servant Holliday masquerade as an Egyptian monarch, which is purchased by Dr. J. P. Morgan, the big millionaire. The minstrelsy of the minstrel furnishes the excitement and amusement of the comedy and serve us pretty Egyptian scenery and costumes. A greater trick is in the "gallerie girls." It is comedy, in his "hit" song, "I'm So Dizzy," he was called and reacted till finally from the gallery comes the white products of the reform.
